Re:    *United States v. Capser, 19 Cr. 337 (JPO)

Dear Judge Oetken:

The Government respectfully writes, without objection from defense counsel, to request an adjournment sine die of the sentencing hearing of Todd Capser, the defendant in the above-captioned case. Capser is currently scheduled to be sentenced this Friday, December 6, 2019, at 10:30 a.m. The reason for the Government's request is that the Government believes that Capser has engaged in a distinct fraud while awaiting sentencing, and that this fact would be critical to the Court's sentencing determination. The Government had anticipated charging Capser with the fraud in question before sentencing, but has not yet done so, due to potential venue issues. The Government would, however, be prepared to prove the fraud by a preponderance of the evidence at a Fatico hearing, if Capser were unwilling to admit it.

Earlier today, the Government provided defense counsel with a reverse proffer regarding the fraud. Once defense counsel has had an opportunity to discuss the matter with Capser, the Government and defense counsel will confer further regarding whether a Fatico hearing will be necessary. If the Court were to grant the instant request, the Government and defense counsel would then jointly propose a new date for the sentencing hearing.

Respectfully Submitted,

GEOFFREY S. BERMAN
United States Attorney
